

Summer Celebration

CELEBRATE SUMMER with FRIENDS and NEIGHBORS.
Two more great programs at HAWKS NEST STATE PARK.

FRONTIER LIVING HISTORY

Saturday, AUGUST 9th

Greg Adamson and Larry Danner will take you back to frontier times at a frontier encampment on the river near the Nature Center.

Dressed in period costumes, these two will show how life was in Frontier Days.

LOCATION: Nature Center Complex – START TIME: 11 a.m. and throughout the day until 5 p.m.

HIGHLAND GRASS – Bluegrass & Gospel Music

Sunday, AUGUST 10th

This group, a West Virginia based band, is well known around the Appalachian Mountain region and neighboring states for their hard driving, high energy, traditional style Bluegrass and Bluegrass Gospel.

Highland Grass is an acoustic five-piece band featuring banjo, fiddle, guitar, and upright bass. You will find the band members in constant motion around a single microphone giving the audience tight harmonies and instrumental prowess the "old fashion way."

LOCATION: Front lawn at Hawks Nest Lodge – START TIME: 2 p.m. through

BRING YOUR LAWN CHAIR AND A FRIEND – ENJOY A SUNDAY AFTERNOON OF MUSIC

BOTH EVENTS ARE FREE!
